

The Title V Program is administratively located within the Bureau of Family Health Services (FHS), a major unit within the Alabama Department of Public Health (ADPH). Through FHS, ADPH administers all aspects of the Title V Program except services for children and youth with special health care needs (CYSHCN). Children's Rehabilitation Service (CRS), administered by the Alabama Department of Rehabilitation Services (ADRS), is the lead agency for services to CYSHCN. This arrangement requires close collaboration between ADPH and CRS. In addition to the Title V Program, FHS administers the Title X Family Planning Grant; the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC); and the State Dental Program. In addition to administering CRS, ADRS administers the Alabama Hemophilia Program.
